MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director
FROM: [REDACTED]
Assistant General Counsel
SUBJECT: DCI's Memorandum of 28 November 1984
Concerning Creative Problem Solving

In Mr. Casey's memorandum of 28 November 1984, he requested that any ideas on accomplishing the Agency's mission in a more effective manner be brought to his attention. It occurred to me that you may not be aware of an article published in [REDACTED] concerning the ethics of intelligence gathering. In that article, which was serialized in three editions of the [REDACTED] and was approved for publication by the Agency Publication Review Board, I proposed several guidelines for ensuring that intelligence activities are conducted in the appropriate manner. If you have not had the opportunity to review the article, I am attaching it for whatever use you may deem appropriate.
